

The Petroleum Institute Conference on Engineering Ethics
(PICEE)
The Petroleum Institute
Abu Dhabi, UAE
April 6-7, 2011

The Petroleum Institute (PI) in Abu Dhabi, UAE, is organizing a conference on Engineering Ethics April 6 – 7, 2010. The overall purpose of the conference is to further discussion and understanding of the theoretical and practical aspects of ethics in engineering. Three major themes are to be addressed:

- Engineering Ethics in Society
- Engineering Ethics in Academia
- Engineering Ethics in Practice (or Industry)

Specifically, presentations are sought that examine ways of increasing awareness of ethics and professionalism, address means for furthering our understanding of the moral responsibilities of engineers, and highlight the impact of engineering solutions in a global and societal context.

The conference will include two internationally known keynote speakers and eight panel sessions. Abstracts are encouraged to address one of the three conference themes; however abstracts will also be considered in a general category. Abstracts are due on 20 January 2011. Notice of acceptance will be sent by 30 January 2011. Full papers to be considered for publication in the conference proceedings should be received by 20 February 2011.

The conference is co-sponsored by several key engineering societies, and will be held in Abu Dhabi at a local conference venue. The conference is a nonprofit event. For more information on the conference, the venue, and the abstract submission process, please visit our conference website at _____.

Sincerely,

Dr. Mashhad Al-Allaf,
